Order No. 208
of the Government of the Republic of Kazakhstan
dated February 7, 2012

Rules

of presenting the solvency proof, required for payment of accommodation and also tuition fees, by immigrants arriving for the purpose of receiving education

1. These Rules of presenting the solvency proof, required for payment of accommodation and also tuition fees, by immigrants arriving for the purpose of receiving education (hereinafter - the Rules) were developed in accordance with the Law of the Republic of Kazakhstan dated July 22, 2011 “On Migration” and govern the procedure of presenting the solvency proof, required for payment of accommodation and also tuition fees, by immigrants arriving for the purpose of receiving education.

2. These Rules shall not apply to immigrants who are ethnic Kazakhs, as well as to persons arriving on the basis of international treaties of the Republic of Kazakhstan.

3. Immigrants arriving in the Republic of Kazakhstan for the purpose of receiving education include students who are admitted to educational institutions, implementing educational programmes of technical and vocational, post-secondary, higher and postgraduate education, including organized exchange programmes for students and preparatory courses (hereinafter -immigrants).

4. Prior to conclusion of the agreements on educational services provision, immigrants shall present to the educational organization a bank statement of the current account, unless otherwise provided by international agreements to which the Republic of Kazakhstan is a party.

5. The amount of the current bank account shall not be less than the cost of tuition, which is established in the agreement between the immigrant and the host educational organizations, along with the payment for accommodation, which is established in accordance with the migration legislation of the Republic of Kazakhstan.
