Rules

for issuing or extending certificates to a foreigner or a stateless person on the compliance of his/her qualification for self-employment

Footnote. The rules are in the wording of the order of the Minister of Labour and Social Protection of Population of the Republic of Kazakhstan dated 25.12.2020 No. 537 (shall be enforced upon expiry of ten calendar days after the day of its first official publication).

Chapter 1. General provisions

1. These Rules for issuing or extending certificates to a foreigner or a stateless person on the compliance of his/her qualification for self-employment (hereinafter – the Rules), have been developed in accordance with subparagraph 21) of Article 7 of the Law of the Republic of Kazakhstan dated April 6, 2016 "On Public Employment" ( hereinafter - the Law), with subparagraph 1) of Article 10 The Law of the Republic of Kazakhstan dated April 15, 2013 "On Public Services" and shall determine the procedure for issuing or extending certificates to a foreigner or a stateless person on the compliance of his/her qualification for self-employment.

2. The following basic concepts are used in these Rules:

1) certificate of conformity of qualification for self-employment (hereinafter- the certificate) - a document of the established form, issued in the manner determined by the authorized body for employment of the population, to a foreigner or a stateless person who meets the qualification requirements and level of education, for self-employment in the Republic of Kazakhstan by professions in demand in priority sectors of the economy (types of economic activity);

2) an executive body financed from the local budget - a state institution authorized by the akimat of regions, the cities of Nur-Sultan, Almaty, and Shymkent to perform functions on ensuring the promotion of employment of the population (hereinafter - the local executive body);

3) an authorized body on the issues of public employment (hereinafter - the authorized body) - the central executive body of the Republic of Kazakhstan, carrying out management and intersectoral coordination in the field of public employment in accordance with the legislation of the Republic of Kazakhstan.

Chapter 2 The procedure for issuing or extending a certificate to a foreigner or a stateless person on the compliance of his/her qualification for self-employment

3. A foreigner or a stateless person (or a person authorized by him/her) to receive the state service "Issuance or extension of a certificate to a foreigner or a stateless person on the compliance of his/her qualification for self-employment" sends an application for issuing a certificate in the form according to Appendix 1 to these Rules through the "electronic government" web portal.

4. The list of basic requirements for the provision of a public service, including the characteristics of the process, the form, content, and result of the provision, as well as other information, taking into account the specifics of the provision of a public service, is given in the public service standard in accordance with Appendix 2 to these Rules ( hereinafter- the standard).

5. When the applicant submits documents on the "electronic government" web portal, the "personal account" displays the status of acceptance of the application for the provision of a public service, indicating the date and time of receipt of the result of a public service.

6. The commission for assessing the compliance of a foreigner or a stateless person with the requirements for qualification and level of education (hereinafter - the Commission) is created by local executive bodies, which includes representatives of local executive bodies, representatives of territorial bodies, authorized bodies in the field of education, bodies of internal affairs, state support for industrial and innovative activities, the National Chamber of Entrepreneurs of the Republic of Kazakhstan "Atameken", associations, as well as representatives of territorial bodies of central government bodies, supervised sectors of which are provided in the list of priority sectors (types of economic activity) and professions in demand in them for self-employment of foreigners or stateless persons.

7. If the submitted documents are complete, the employee of the local executive body shall send them for consideration by the Commission within two working days from the date of registration of the documents.

8. The commission, when considering applications and documents of foreigners or stateless persons, shall check their compliance with the requirements for qualifications and the level of education for professions in demand, in priority sectors of the economy, approved by the authorized body in the manner prescribed by these Rules.

The level of education (professional training) and experience (length of service) of practical work of a foreigner or a stateless person applying for a certificate must meet the qualification requirements in accordance with professional standards according to paragraph 2 of Article 117 of the Labor Code of the Republic of Kazakhstan dated November 23, 2015 (hereinafter - Labor Code), Qualification directory of positions of managers, specialists, and other employees, approved by the authorized body in accordance with subparagraph 16-1) of Article 16 of the Labor Code, typical qualification characteristics of positions of managers, specialists and other employees of organizations.

9. The Commission conducts an assessment based on an analysis of the documents submitted by a foreigner or a stateless person, as well as the qualification criteria provided for in paragraph 10 of these Rules, and makes recommendations on issuing or refusing to issue a certificate to a foreigner or a stateless person, with a reasoned justification for the reasons for refusal provided for by paragraph 12 of these Rules. The decision of the Commission shall be made separately for each foreigner or stateless person, drawn up in a protocol and signed by the members of the Commission present at the meeting.

10. In accordance with the criteria for qualification characteristics, the following points shall be awarded to a foreigner or a stateless person by the Commission:

1) education:

higher education in a specialty corresponding to professions in demand in priority sectors of the economy (types of economic activity) - 3 points;

academic degree in a specialty corresponding to professions in demand in priority sectors of the economy (types of economic activity) - 4 points;

certificate for teaching English - 3 points;

2) work experience:

work experience in a specialty corresponding to professions in demand in priority sectors of the economy (types of economic activity):

from 1 to 3 years - 2 points;

from 3 to 10 years - 4 points;

from 10 years and above - 6 points.

11. Based on the recommendation of the Commission, the local executive body, within 5 (five) working days from the date of acceptance of the application, shall make a decision to issue a certificate of qualifications for self-employment in the form in accordance with Appendix 3 to these Rules or to refuse to provide a public service.

12. Refusal to issue a certificate to a foreigner or a stateless person shall be carried out in accordance with the standard.

13. The result of the provision of public service shall be sent to the "personal account" of an applicant on the portal in the form of an electronic document signed by an electronic digital signature of an authorized person of the service provider.

14. A certificate issued by the local executive body shall not be subject to transfer to another person and shall be valid on the territory of the Republic of Kazakhstan.

15. The certificate shall be issued for a period not exceeding three months.

16. If a foreigner or a stateless person submits documents stipulated by the standard for extending the certificate, the local executive body within three working days shall extend the certificate for the duration of the employment contract, but not more than three years.

17. In order to extend the term of the certificate, a foreigner or a stateless person, within five working days from the date of conclusion of an employment contract with the employer, shall send the documents provided for by the standard for extending the certificate through the "electronic government" web portal.

18. In the event of a change of employer during the certificate's validity period, a foreigner or a stateless person shall send a written notification to the local executive body about this within five working days from the date of the conclusion of a new employment contract.

19. When changing the employer, the issuance of a certificate to a foreigner or a stateless person shall be carried out in the manner prescribed by paragraphs 16 and 17 of these Rules.

20. Upon termination of an employment contract on the grounds provided for by the labor legislation of the Republic of Kazakhstan, a foreign employee or a stateless person shall send a written notification about this to the local executive body within five working days.

21. The basis for the withdrawal of a certificate shall be the implementation by a foreigner or a stateless person of labor activity in profession that does not correspond to the certificate.

22. Re-issuance of a previously issued certificate shall be carried out in case of a change in the surname, name, patronymic (if any), number, and series of the document proving the identity of a foreigner or a stateless person.

A foreigner or a stateless person, within five working days from the date of changing the surname, name, patronymic, number, and series of the document proving the identity of a foreigner or a stateless person, shall submit an application through the "electronic government" web portal for reissuing a certificate, attaching copies of documents confirming the given information.

The local executive body, within three working days from the date of submission of the application, reissues the certificate with the assignment of a new number. In case of loss or damage of the certificate, the local executive body issues a certificate within five working days from the date of filing the application.

In this case, the issued certificate is valid until the expiration date of the lost or damaged certificate indicated in the original.

Lost, damaged certificates are considered invalid from the day a foreigner or a stateless person submits a written application through the e-government web portal about its loss or damage.

23. Appeal against decisions, actions (inaction) of the local executive body and (or) its officials on the provision of public services, the complaint shall be filed to the head of the local executive body.

The applicant's complaint received by the local executive body shall be subject to consideration within 5 (five) working days from the date of its registration.

In case of disagreement with the results of the public service provided, the applicant shall file a complaint to the authorized body for assessing and monitoring the quality of the provision of public services.

A complaint received by the authorized body for assessing and monitoring the quality of the provision of public services shall be subject to consideration within 15 (fifteen) working days from the date of its registration.

In cases of disagreement with the results of the rendered public service, the applicant shall apply to the court in accordance with the procedure established by the legislation of the Republic of Kazakhstan.

24. The certificate shall be terminated in the following cases:

- 1) expiration of the period for which it was issued;
- 2) revocation of the issued certificate;
- 3) discovering that a foreigner or a stateless person is carrying out labor activity by the profession that does not correspond to the certificate.
