Rules for the Provision of the Public Service “Accreditation of Entities Pursuing Scientific and (or) Scientific and Engineering Activities”

Footnote. The Rules - as revised by order of the Acting Minister of Science and Higher Education of the Republic of Kazakhstan № 283 of 16.06.2023 (shall come into effect after the day of its official publication).

Chapter 1: General Provisions

1. These Rules for the Provision of the Public Service “Accreditation of Entities Pursuing Scientific and (or) Scientific and Engineering Activities” (hereinafter - Rules) have been elaborated under sub-paragraph 1) of Article 10 of the Law of the Republic of Kazakhstan “On Public services” (hereinafter - the Law) and establish the procedure for the provision of the public service “Accreditation of Entities Pursuing Scientific and (or) Scientific and Engineering Activities” (hereinafter - the public service).

2. The public service shall be rendered by the Science Committee of the Ministry of Science and Higher Education of the Republic of Kazakhstan (hereinafter - the service provider) to natural persons and legal entities (hereinafter - the service recipient) as described herein.

3. The following basic concepts are used herein:

1) accreditation - the procedure, as a result thereof entities of scientific and (or) scientific and engineering activities acquire official recognition of conformity of their activities to the requirements and standards established by the laws of the Republic of Kazakhstan;

2) a certificate of accreditation - a document of the established sample, confirming the official recognition by the competent authority of scientific, scientific and engineering activities pursued by a natural person or a legal entity.

Chapter 2: Procedure for the provision of a public service

4. In order to receive the public service, service recipients shall provide the service provider or via the Government for Citizens State Corporation Non-Commercial Joint Stock Company (hereinafter referred to as the State Corporation) a package of documents mentioned in paragraph 8 of the List of Basic Requirements for Provision of the Public Service “Accreditation of Entities Pursuing Scientific and (or) Scientific and Engineering Activities” as per Annex 1 hereto (hereinafter referred to as the List of Basic Requirements).

5. The list of basic requirements for the provision of a public service including the features of the process, form, content and result of provision, as well as other data with due regard to the specifics of the provision of public services is shown in the List of Basic Requirements.

6. Details of identity documents shall be obtained by an employee of the State Corporation from the relevant state information systems via the e-Government gateway.

When accepting documents via the State Corporation, the service recipient shall be given a receipt of acceptance of the relevant documents.

Should a service recipient provide an incomplete set of documents as per the list specified in the List of Basic Requirements and (or) documents with expired validity period, an employee of the State Corporation shall refuse to accept the application and issue a receipt in the form under Annex 2 hereto. When applying to the State Corporation, the day of reception shall not be included in the term of provision of the public service.

Compiled applications (with the package of documents, if any) with two copies of the register shall be forwarded to the service provider via courier, and (or) postal service, and (or) via the information system, as per the schedule. The second copy of the register shall be returned to the State Corporation with a mark of receipt by the relevant service provider.

Accepted applications with accompanying documents shall be delivered to the respective service provider and back at least twice on the day of receipt of these applications.

7. The official of the office of the service provider shall accept and register the documents on the day of their receipt and send them to the head of the service provider, who within 1 business day shall appoint the responsible executive of the structural subdivision of the service provider (hereinafter referred to as the responsible executive).

8. Should the service recipient file an incomplete set of documents pursuant to the list stipulated by the List of Basic Requirements and (or) documents with expired validity period, the service provider shall refuse to accept an application.

Upon receipt of the application, the responsible executive shall examine the compliance of the submitted documents, data (information) contained therein as per the List of Basic Requirements.

In case of non-compliance of the documents filed under the List of Basic Requirements, the responsible executive shall draw up an Act of Expertise (in free form) on Accreditation of an Entity of Scientific and (or) Scientific and Engineering Activities (hereinafter - the Act of Expertise) and agree it with the head of the responsible structural subdivision.

According to the Act of Expertise, the responsible executive shall prepare a motivated response on refusal, which shall be agreed by the head of the responsible structural subdivision within 1 business day and signed by the head of the service provider or his/her deputy for sending to the service recipient.

9. Should the documents presented by the service provider comply with the List of Basic Requirements, the responsible executive shall draw up the Act of Expertise (in free form) and agree it with the head of the responsible structural subdivision and (or) with the deputy head of the service provider, whereby within one business day he/she shall draw up a decision on issuing the accreditation certificate for a period of five years as per Annex 3 hereto and sign it with the head of the service provider or his/her substitute.

However, the accreditation certificate issued earlier shall be recognised as no longer valid.

10. In case of revealing the grounds for refusal in rendering the public service, the responsible executive shall inform the applicant about the preliminary decision on refusal in rendering the public service, as well as the time, date and place (method) of the hearing for the opportunity to express the applicant's position on the preliminary decision.

A notification on hearing shall be sent not less than 3 (three) business days prior to the end of the term of rendering the public service under Article 73 of the Administrative Procedural and Procedural Code of the Republic of Kazakhstan (hereinafter - APPC RK). The hearing shall be held not later than 2 (two) business days from the date of notification.

Following the results of the hearing, a certificate of accreditation shall be issued, or a reasoned refusal to provide a public service.

11. The ready accreditation certificate shall be issued to the service recipient upon presentation of an identity document or an electronic document from the digital document service (to identify the person) (or his/her representative: a legal entity by a power of attorney of the organisation; individuals by a notarised power of attorney or his/her representative whose powers are executed pursuant to Article 68 of the APPC RK).

12. The results of public service shall be delivered by the service provider for the State Corporation of Astana city within 1 (one) calendar day by courier, for the State Corporation of other regions - by postal service within 7 (seven) calendar days.

Herewith, the service provider shall ensure delivery of the result of the public service to the State Corporation not later than 24 hours prior to the expiry of the term of rendering the public service.

13. The State Corporation shall ensure storage of the result of the public service within 1 (one) month, then shall transfer it to the service provider for further storage within 1 (one) year. When the service-recipient applies after 1 (one) month, at the request of the State Corporation the service provider shall forward the finished result of the state service to the State Corporation for issuance to the service-recipient within 10 (ten) business days (located in the city of Astana within 1 (one) business day).

14. The service recipient (a legal entity), whose scientific and technical activities are not the main type of activities, for the purpose of solving the tasks specified in the constituent documents, having scientific subdivisions in its structure, shall be accredited by the service provider in order to obtain an accreditation certificate.

When applying for accreditation, scientists' scientometric data shall be filed no more than twice (as a natural person and from the scientist's main place of employment).

15. Branches shall be accredited as part of the parent organisation.

16. The service provider shall compile a database of accredited entities that have received accreditation certificates, as well as terminated certificates, to be placed on the internet resources of the service provider.

17. Should the surname, first name, patronymic (if any) of the service recipient (a natural person) and (or) the name of the service recipient (a legal entity) be changed, the accredited entities/natural persons shall file an application to the service provider as per Annex 11 hereto for re-issuance of the accreditation certificate accompanied by supporting documents as per paragraph 8 of the List of Basic Requirements, whereby the service provider shall be issued an accreditation certificate with the previously issued validity period.

18. Should the accreditation certificate be lost, the service provider shall issue a duplicate accreditation certificate upon written request of the accredited entity within five business days.

19. Prior to the expiry of the term, the accreditation certificate shall be terminated in the following cases:

1) reorganisation (in the forms of merger, consolidation, division, separation, transformation) or liquidation of a legal entity;

2) a written application of the entity to terminate the certificate;

3) death (entry into legal force of a court decision on declaring the entity/person incapacitated, based on which the entity/person is deprived of a special right related to occupation in a certain field) of a natural person who received an accreditation certificate.

20. The service provider shall ensure that data on the stage of public service provision is entered into the information system for monitoring the provision of public services under sub-paragraph 11) of paragraph 2 of Article 5 of the Law.

21. Within 3 (three) business days from the date of enactment of amendments and (or) additions hereto the information shall be sent by the service provider to the Government for Citizens State Corporation, as well as to the Unified Contact Centre.

Chapter 3: Procedure for appealing against actions (inaction) of officials on issues of rendering public services

22. A complaint regarding the provision of public services shall be examined by a higher administrative body, an official, an authorised body for evaluation and control over the quality of public services (hereinafter - the body considering the complaint).

A complaint shall be lodged with the service provider and (or) the official whose decision, action (inaction) is being appealed against.

A service provider, an official, whose decision, action (inaction) is being appealed, no later than three business days from the date of receipt of the complaint shall forward it and the administrative file to the body reviewing the complaint.

Herewith, the service provider, the official whose decision, action (inaction) is appealed, may not send the complaint to the body considering the complaint, if it adopts a decision or other administrative action within three business days, fully satisfying the requirements specified in the complaint.

A complaint of the service recipient, filed to the service provider shall be examined within 5 (five) business days from the day of its registration under paragraph 2 of Article 25 of the Law of the Republic of Kazakhstan “On State Services”.

A service recipient's complaint received by the authorised body for evaluation and control over the quality of public services shall be examined within 15 (fifteen) business days from the day of its registration.

23. Except as otherwise prescribed by law, recourse to the court shall be allowed after appealing in a pre-trial procedure.
