Rules for payment of services of the National Development Institute in the field of innovative development when providing innovative grants

Footnote. The Rules - as amended by the order of the Minister of Digital Development, Innovation and Aerospace Industry of the Republic of Kazakhstan dated 10.03.2022 № 82/HK (shall come into effect upon expiry of ten calendar days after the day of its first official publication).

Chapter 1. General Provisions

1. These Rules for payment for services of the national development institute in the field of innovative development when providing innovative grants (hereinafter referred to as the Rules) have been developed in accordance with subparagraph 9) of paragraph 2 of Article 100-1 of the Entrepreneurial Code of the Republic of Kazakhstan and shall determine the procedure for payment for services of the national development institute in the field of innovative development when providing innovative grants.

2. The following basic concepts shall be used in these Rules:

1) innovation grant – budgetary funds provided to subjects of innovation activity on a gratuitous basis for the implementation of their innovation projects within the framework of priority areas for the provision of innovation grants;

2) national development institute in the field of innovative development - a national development institute authorized to implement measures of state support for innovative activities.

3) the authorized body in the field of state support for innovation activities (hereinafter referred to as the Authorized body) - the central executive body that exercises leadership in the field of innovation and technological development, as well as, within the limits provided for by the legislation of the Republic of Kazakhstan, intersectoral coordination and participation in the implementation of state support for innovation activities;

4) applicant – an individual and/or legal entity who has applied for an innovation grant.

Chapter 2. The procedure for payment for services of the national institute for the development of the field of innovative development for the provision of innovative grants

3. Payment for the services of the national development institute in the field of innovative development for the provision of innovative grants shall be carried out in accordance with the cost estimate specified in the agreement concluded between the authorized body and the national development institute in the field of innovative development at the expense of funds provided for by the budget program in the republican budget for the relevant financial year.

The cost of services of the national development institute in the field of innovative development shall include expenses for:

1) monitoring of the provided innovation grants to analyze the achievement of the planned goals for innovation projects for which innovation grants were provided;

2) organization of the procedure for providing innovation grants;

3) informing the public about the start of accepting applications, the conditions for their submission, consultations and explanatory work with potential applicants.

4. Payment for the services of the national development institute in the field of innovative development for the provision of innovative grants shall be made on the basis of a signed certificate of completion of work between the authorized body and the national development institute in the field of innovative development.
